

DEPUTY HEADMASTER Head of Senior School

Brisbane Boys' College

Brisbane Boys' College is a leading GPS independent day and boarding school for boys from P-12 with a rich and impressive history. The College has a reputation for academic excellence and for helping to harness the potential of boys in all aspects of their lives.

Following the appointment of the current Deputy Headmaster, Mr Kyle Thompson to the position of Principal of Scots PGC Warwick, the College seeks to appoint a new Deputy Headmaster-Head of Senior School, from 1 January 2018. At that time Mr Paul Brown will become the new Headmaster of Brisbane Boys' College.

The College has a sound foundation including strong enrolments and excellent facilities. This role offers an exceptional opportunity for an outstanding educator and leader to work in support of the incoming Headmaster at an exciting time for the College.

The successful applicant will have demonstrated experience and proven ability to work collaboratively to:

- Confirm a framework of pastoral care that supports students' resilience in relation to contemporary wellbeing issues
- Support the Headmaster in the communication and implementation of the College Strategy at all levels
- Manage, support and develop a significant number of staff
- Articulate a consistent philosophy of teaching and learning that aligns with the College's Strategy
- Implement effective models of student leadership across a range of settings

This exceptional opportunity will appeal to a contemporary and inspiring leader who has worked in a senior leadership position within a high performing school culture. An ability to demonstrate insights into boarding environments will be highly regarded.

All requests for further information including full details about the application process should be directed to Neville Lyngcoln of Lyngcoln Consulting on 0427 530 582 or to neville@lyngcolnconsulting.com.au. All enquiries will be treated confidentially.

Applications close on Saturday 2 September at 5.00pm.
