For boarding students, they do not include pocket money or recreational outings. Pocket money is at the parent/s discretion. Parents must take into consideration extra costs for accommodation and care during term holidays if the student is not returning home during vacations; and air or other travel costs to and from their home and Australia.

Application Fee

The Application Fee paid with each Application for Enrolment is an administrative fee which is non-refundable and does not guarantee a place at the College.

Confirmation Fee

All students – resident and international - pay a non-refundable confirmation fee once only on accepting an offer of a place. For international students, the confirmation fee is included in the tuition fees listed for payment on the Letter of Offer: Invoice of Fees, payable when the Written Agreement and Enrolment Contract are returned.

The confirmation fee paid when accepting the offer of a place is refundable only in the event a student's application for a student visa is unsuccessful and in other limited compassionate and compelling circumstances. This fee is not deducted from future Tuition Fees.

In the event a student withdraws from Brisbane Boys' College after commencing, half of one study period written notice is required. If such period of notice is not provided, then one (1) quarter of the annual boarding fee (for a boarder) will be withheld. The balance of any fees paid in advance will be refunded.

Boarder Linen Packs and student nametags

Once ordered with Linen Packs, student nametags cannot be refunded. It may be possible to arrange a partial refund for other items in the Linen Pack.

Families will need to apply for a refund, in writing, to the College's OSHC Provider, Medibank Private and provide documentary proof of the reason for the refund (e.g. letter from Department of Home Affairs where the visa is denied; letter from the educational institution etc.). When writing to Medibank Private, families must include the address to which they want the refund sent.

Music Lessons

- Music fees for each year are approved late the previous year and listed on the Fee Schedule available from the Admissions Office or on the College web site. Students are billed for the full year's tuition fees for private music instruction with the Semester 2 fee statement (or a pro-rata amount for the year if not in attendance for the full year).
- Students who study elective Academic Music (Years 9 to 12) for four periods a week or more are entitled to a discount on their private music tuition fees
- New enrolments for private music lessons are for a minimum of one semester (16 lessons) and if cancelled, tuition fees for that semester will not be refunded. It is therefore our recommendation that the student continue his lessons for the remainder of that semester for which he will be charged.
- The intention to cancel lessons at the end of that semester must also be provided in writing to the Music Office at least four weeks before the change is to occur. If less than four weeks' notice in writing is provided, Brisbane Boys' College will charge the equivalent of four weeks' lessons or deduct the equivalent amount from fees paid in advance.
- If a student cancels his enrolment at Brisbane Boys' College, in addition to supplying one term's notice as advised in the Student Enrolment Contract, your son's Music Teacher will require four weeks' notice in writing. If less than four weeks' notice in writing is provided, the College will charge the equivalent of four weeks' lessons to the final account.
